

Old Synagogue

Monument not open to the public.

There is a well-founded belief that this old mansion once housed the Jewish synagogue. This is validated by the ornamental details which we can see on its façade, engraved on stucco and with obvious signs of Mudejar style. In this engraving is seen the six pointed star known as the Star of David, of Jewish origin.